ANNOUNCEMENT
22 March 2021

Applications now open for two environmental at-sea training opportunities with Marawa – Apply by 9 April!

Applications are now open for two at-sea training opportunities for candidates from developing States members of the International Seabed Authority (ISA). The placements are provided by Marawa Research and Exploration Ltd (Kiribati), in accordance with its obligations under its exploration contract for polymetallic nodules with ISA.

ISA is calling for candidates with a minimum of a Bachelor's degree in oceanography, marine science, environmental science or equivalent. Successful candidates should demonstrate a good command of the English language and an interest in marine geology or science (particularly the deep sea), the seafloor minerals industry and ocean sustainability. Offshore experience is desirable.

The offshore environmental campaign will be conducted in partnership with Nauru Ocean Resources Inc (NORI) in the Clarion-Clipperton Zone in the Pacific Ocean. It is expected to depart from the port of San Diego (USA) on 20 June 2021 for a duration of three weeks.

Female candidates are particularly encouraged to apply.

Please visit this link for more information and to apply. Applications by qualified candidates should be submitted no later than 9 April 2021.

For media enquiries, please contact:

Ms. Annekah Mason, Training Coordinator, ISA, amason@isa.org.jm
